“ALTERNATIVE FACTS” HAVE NO PLACE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS: NEW JERSEY LAW JOURNAL PUBLISHES ARTICLE BY M&W’S RIC GALLIN AND ERIC HARRISON REGARDING ALI V. WOODBRIDGE BOARD OF EDUCATION

This week’s New Jersey Law Journal features an article by Ric Gallin and Eric Harrison regarding an important precedential opinion in favor of a school district represented by M&W and published by the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. While on the surface the Ali case was a straightforward employment dispute, the public school teacher’s defenses to his termination required a deep dive into the First Amendment as applied to public employees. The outcome achieved by Ric, Eric and Leslie Koch of M&W reaffirms a school’s control over the curriculum to which its students are exposed and the manner in which that curriculum is delivered.
