

METHFESSEL & WERBEL

A Professional Corporation

The Leading Insurance and Claims Attorneys

C A S E A L E R T

METHFESSEL & WERBEL CONGRATULATES PARTNER PAUL ENDLER ON MIDDLESEX COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION CIVIL TRIAL PRACTICE AWARD

Methfessel & Werbel is proud to announce that Partner Paul Endler has received the Civil Trial Practice Award from the Middlesex County Bar Association as first reported in the MCBA's February Newsletter.

The purpose of the Civil Trial Practice Award is to recognize attorneys practicing in Middlesex County and adjacent municipalities who devote a significant portion of their work to their Civil Trial Practice and exhibit leadership in their field of practice; significant contributions to the bar; significant contributions to the community and/or charitable endeavors; a record of promoting collegiality within the Association; and a reputation for personal and professional integrity.

These qualities are well known to Paul's coworkers at Methfessel & Werbel, as well as the clients of the firm, and we are gratified that the Middlesex County Bar Association has bestowed this honor upon him as well. Congratulations, Paul, for this well-deserved recognition.

The 16th Annual Practice Area Awards Recognition will be held on March 18, 2021 at 3:00 PM via Zoom. You can register for the event HERE.

The Methfessel & Werbel Case Alert is published solely for the interest of friends and clients of Methfessel & Werbel and should in no way be relied upon or construed as legal advice or counsel. For specific information on recent developments or advice regarding particular factual situations, the opinion of legal counsel should be sought.