SUBROGATION INDUSTRY HEAVYWEIGHT JIM CULLEN JOINS M&W AS PARTNER

Veteran Subrogation Attorney with 28 years of exclusive subrogation experience joins Methfessel & Werbel from Subrogation Department of Corporate Law Firm Cozen O'Connor

James (Jim) Cullen, a nationally recognized subrogation attorney with 28 years of experience exclusively in the practice of subrogation recovery, is joining Methfessel & Werbel as a Partner, effective immediately.

Jim graduated cum laude from Villanova University and summa cum laude from the University of Dayton, attending both on academic scholarships. Upon graduation from law school, Jim joined the International Law Firm of Cozen O'Connor, where he was a Shareholder and where he practiced subrogation exclusively for 28 years, establishing deep ties within the industry.

Over the course of his career Jim has handled numerous complex losses, including the Boston Back Bay Fire on Beacon Street in 2014, the Danvers CAI explosion in 2006, the Merrimack Valley gas explosions in 2018, and the Times Square scaffolding collapse in 1998, among many others. He is the Past Chairman of the New England Chapter of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals (NASP).

In conjunction with Jim joining Methfessel & Werbel, the firm has expanded geographically by opening its newest office at 101 Federal Street in Boston. The reach into New England is supported by existing clients who previously have asked us to provide services in New England, as well as anticipated growth in that geographic area.

Should you have any questions regarding this or any of M&W's practice areas, please feel free to contact John Methfessel or Matt Werbel at any time.
