

METHFESSEL & WERBEL

A Professional Corporation

The Leading Insurance and Claims Attorneys

C A S E A L E R T

METHFESSEL & WERBEL FALL/WINTER HIGHLIGHTS

On October 25, 2022 Richard Nelke presented at the annual New Jersey Special Investigators Association conference in Atlantic City. The presentation - "Peer to Peer Rentals: Strategies to Address Coverage and Liability issues" - explored coverage and liability issues in peer to peer rentals in the automobile and housing industry.

On November 19, 2022, Bill Bloom participated as a judge in the Seton Hall University School of Law Appellate Advocacy Program. This program enables second year law students to experience the true feel of presenting arguments and being questioned by judges as to the facts and law applicable to the case. On December 3, 2022 Paul Endler and Angel Hierrezuelo also participated as judges on the panel.

On December 20, 2022 Ric Gallin and

Gina Stanziale presented a seminar for Celesq titled "A Discussion About Allocation and Contribution Among Joint Tortfeasors in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania."

On January 5, 2023 Ric Gallin and Gina Stanziale will also be presenting a seminar for the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education titled "Apportioning Liability: An Allocation and Contribution Update." The panel will address the concepts of joint tortfeasors, claims for contribution, allocation among tortfeasors as well as recent on point court rules amendments and case law. To register, click here.

Friends and clients interested in obtaining further information or attending future seminars are welcome to contact Rich, Bill, Paul, Angel, Ric and Gina directly.

The Methfessel & Werbel Case Alert is published solely for the interest of friends and clients of Methfessel & Werbel and should in no way be relied upon or construed as legal advice or counsel. For specific information on recent developments or advice regarding particular factual situations, the opinion of legal counsel should be sought.